Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 11 and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The details of the spring clip are not adequately disclosed.

Claims s 1-25,28 and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, there is no antecedent basis for "the top cross-bar" and "the bottom cross-bar". Also, the rails have not been structurally related to the rest of the invention.

In claim 9, "fit within the extended length of such cross-bar" is indefinite.

In claim 28, "any one of the cross-bars is extended" and "fits into the extended cross-bar" is not ambiguous.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claimed 26-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by either Hood or Enghauser.

Regarding Hood: See first frame J, second frame I, rails, c1-3, crossbars a1-3, b1-3, e1-3, d1-3, and "mud shoes" a3 and d3 or h1 and E. Claim 28 is met as best understood.

Regarding Enghauser: See first frame 11, second frame 11, rails B, crossbars 24, and "mud shoes" 42. Claim 28 is met as best understood.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 30 and 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over either Hood or Enghauser.

The specific crossection of the rails and posts are clearly obvious design choices. For example, square presents a different appearance as well as different structural properties.

Double Patenting

Claims 1-8, 12-16 and 20-25 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-19, respectively, of copending Application No. 10/753552. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 9-11 and 17-19 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
